EMAIL MARKETING

You're probably aware that email blasts are the most popular and most profitable among all the different avenues of marketing.

If done right, email is quite simply the most cost-effective means of attracting new leads and customers. Often, all it takes is ONE sale to pay back the cost of a single email blast. In this economy, email blasts should be a part of every marketer's tool kit.

BENEFITS OF EMAIL MARKETING

Targeted Audience:

Email Marketing allows you to control who exactly sees your email

Increases Brand Awareness:

With every email, your customers are re-exposed to your brand

Reliable:

Unlike social media, postal address or even phone numbers, email addresses do not change often.

Easy to Share: Subscribers who share your email campaigns become your brand ambassadors

Measurable and Easy to Track:

Enables to the marketer to collect additional data about their customers so that they can fine-tune marketing efforts

Immediate:

Marketing messages are presented to potential customers within seconds with the ability to receive responses instantaneously

Low Cost:

Email Marketing costs lot less than traditional direct mail marketing

Easy to Customize:

Create specific programs for each of your customer groups
